AI for Education Tools curated June 1, 2023

Main AI tools: ChatGPT, Bard, Poe, Bing, and Hugging Face.
Perplexity.Ai and Teach Anything are search engines that provides short and simple answers to questions.

There are many good text-to-image tools. Instead of listing them here, you can find them all at THE BEST RESOURCES FOR TEACHING & LEARNING WITH AI ART GENERATION TOOLS.

"CONSENSUS" USES ARTIFICIAL INTELLIGENCE TO HELP YOU FIND ANSWERS TO YOUR RESEARCH QUESTIONS

Tell analogenie what you want to explain, and it will use AI to come up with an appropriate analogy.

QuestGen will automatically generate questions for any text, including ones on Bloom's Taxonomy levels.

I'm adding it to both The Best Resources For Helping Teachers Use Bloom's Taxonomy In The Classroom

THE "BEST" TOOLS FOR AUTOMATICALLY TURNING TEXTS & VIDEOS INTO INTERACTIVE LANGUAGE LEARNING TOOLS.

Pressto uses AI to help students write essays. The Best Online Tools That Can Help Students Write An Essay

Lumen5 Uses AI To Generate Videos From Blog Posts & Other Texts/Presentations
Opinionate will create a debate on any topic of your choosing – using AI. It seems to work pretty well.

The Best Sites For Students To Create & Participate In Online Debates.

Upload data to Chartify and it will use AI to come up with various recommended ways to visualize it.

The Best Tools To Make Simple Graphs Online.

Type the last three books you read into Reccabook , and it will make books recommendations for you. Added to The Best Places To Get Blog, Website, Book, Movie, & Music Recommendations.

Readow is another AI tool for book recommendations.

Census GPT lets you search Census Data using "natural language." Added it to The Best Tools For Analyzing Census Data.

Practice Interview lets you choose the job you want, and then uses an AI-generated chatbot to ask you interview questions that you can answer. I'm adding it to The Best Websites For Students Exploring Jobs and Careers.

The Auto Classmate Activation and Engagement Activity Generator looks like it could be helpful to teachers. There are also other potentially useful tools at the same site.

"BookAI.chat" Does An Impressive Job Of Letting You Talk To Any Book

Twee lets teachers do a TON of lesson activities. There are concerns with this one. Read carefully.

Your personal job interview coach is what it says it is. I'm adding it to The Best Places For Students To Write Their Resumes and to The Best Websites For Students Exploring Jobs and Careers.

Story AI lets you create stories, but it seems to be more scaffolded then other similar tools, and that might make it more useful in the classroom. It asks you specific questions about your story, as opposed to just asking you to give it a prompt. Added The Best Online Tools Using Artificial Intelligence For Creating Stories For Children.

Diffit Excellent tool for teachers to use for creating differentiated materials.

Conker lets you use AI to create multiple choice quizzes about any subject and/or quizzes about text to paste into it. Added to THE "BEST" TOOLS FOR AUTOMATICALLY TURNING TEXTS & VIDEOS INTO INTERACTIVE LANGUAGE LEARNING TOOLS.

"Eigo.ai" Is A New Free Site Using Artificial Intelligence To Support ELLs

Shakespeare Toolbar might also be useful to ELLs. Among other things, once you highlight a passage, it will rephrase it in a more simple way.

"Literally Anything" Lets You Use AI To Create A Lot Of Things (Though Not "Anything")

An AI search engine designed to search AI's by function https://theresanaiforthat.com/